

WHAT TO PACK FOR YOUR CHARTER

Space is generally limited on even the largest sailboat or catamaran, so ideally, you'll be packing one carry-on bag for the occasion. Check out this guide to help you decide what to pack and bring along for your yacht charter in Greece.

A soft bag is the best choice for a boat, since its soft sides mean that it can be stored away easily, and your cabin will be ship shape!

The first thing you'll want to think about is your skin. You'll be spending plenty of time out in the hot sun, so be sure to pack a waterproof sunscreen (with a high enough SPF to protect your skin adequately) and some sun-protective clothing as well such as cover-ups, sarongs, sun shirts, and other such clothing. Don't forget the sunglasses and a hat!

A after sun lotion or something similar to soothe burned skin would be useful just in case too. Basic toiletries preferably environmentally friendly would be needed too.

Dress code is generally very relaxed on a sailboat. Shorts and t-shirts are the norm, even for dinner. For ladies, a comfy sundress could be just the thing. Naturally, you will want to bring swimwear—and preferably more than just one swimsuit, so that one or two can be drying while you are wearing another.

For shoes, you might want to bring along two pairs: one pair of non-marking deck shoes, which will help you keep secure footing while aboard and flip flops for just about everything else (general rule you cannot wear hard soled shoes on a yacht)

Don't forget about miscellaneous items. Bring an extra battery or a portable charger for your phone. Electrical outlets on a boat may be limited in use and dependent on shore power. A specific case for your electronics can help keep your digital stuff safe and contained. Some books or an e-reader will come in handy for quiet time. Pack a few Ziploc bags to keep your cash, documents, and electronics dry while in your bag.

Happy packing !!! Remember space on yachts is at a premium!!
